Sporting Notes.

Sid Holbrook has a fine chance of getting into the Princeton game for Dartmouth.

If Yale has organized any defense against the forward pass it will have to show it much earlier than it likes, tomorrow afternoon.

With Washington and Jefferson, Colgate, Brown, Princeton and Harvard coming on successive Saturdays, Yale cannot complain of weak opposition in prospect.

Dartmouth and Princeton have played 12 games since the Tigers took that opening battle in 1897 by 20 to 0. Princeton has won eight games, with the record score of 42 to 0 in 1906. Dartmouth has won three—6 to 0 in

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Greenfield Man Retired Apparently in Good Health.

GREENFIELD, Mass., Oct. 27. — Albert W. Roth, 46, was found dead in bed yesterday morning at his home on the Montague City road by his wife.

He retired Wednesday evening apparently in good health. Dr. G. P. Twitchell, medical examiner, was called and pronounced death due to natural causes. He was a foreman of the brass department of the Montague City fish rod factory, and had been a resident of Greenfield for 12 years. He formerly lived in Rome, N. Y. He was a native of Germany. He leaves his wife and two daughters and two sons.
